

Media Release Friday 30th July, 2010

akp Scotland Ltd announces £7m of new contract wins

akp Scotland Ltd, one of Scotland's leading multi – sector, construction, refurbishment and fit-out companies today confirmed that it had secured £7m of new orders. Ian McEwan, akp's Managing Director, said:

“This excellent news, against a very difficult background in the industry, is obviously most welcome and a tribute to our Building Pride ethos.”

The contract wins include;

Education : George Watson's College, Edinburgh- New Phase 3, PE Department

: Erskine Stewart's Melville Schools, Edinburgh-
New Sports Changing Pavilion

: Glasgow Caledonian University- Window Replacement Works

: Cardonald College, Glasgow - 7th Floor Labs and Kitchens Project

Commercial : TDG Glenrothes, Fife - Major Remedial Works

: Kilbirnie Registry Office, Ayrshire- Strathclyde Police

: HPF Energy Services, Hillington, Glasgow

Healthcare : NHS Greater Glasgow & Clyde Projects at;

: Henderson House, Gartnavel Royal Hospital, Glasgow

: Inverclyde Royal Hospital, Greenock – HEI Works

Notes for Editors- akp was formed in 1994. The company is based in East Kilbride. Turnover in 2009 was £19.7m. The firm employs 80 people. The Managing Director is Ian McEwan who founded the company. More corporate information on company website;

www.akpscotland.com

For Further Details contact akp's Business Development Department

Tel: 0845 277 0900 or 0845 277 0912 (Direct Dial) or 07809 389633 (Mobile)